| CONTROLLED BY GOOGLE, INC.            | ) |                      |

On November 26, 2014, the court issued an order commanding Google, Inc. (“the Provider”) not to notify any person of the existence of the warrant until a certain date or further order of the court.

On January 29, 2016, the United States filed a motion requesting an extension of the court’s order re nondisclosure on the ground that disclosure of the warrant will seriously jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 2705(b)(2), (3), and (5).

For good cause shown, the court GRANTS the motion (Docket No. 5). It is ORDERED that under 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b), the Provider shall not disclose the existence of the warrant, the United States’ motions, or this courts orders to the listed subscribers or to any other person until at least March 31, 2017, unless and until otherwise authorized to do so by the court, except that the Provider may disclose the warrant to its attorney(s) for the purpose of obtaining legal advice.

It is further ORDERED that this matter shall remain under seal until March 31, 2017, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Dated this 1st day of February, 2016.
